IN THE CHURCH...

We continue in quarantine but can go out for medical appointments or shopping depending on our national ID number which means every other day. The restrictions for attending church are so limiting that we have not opened yet. In the meantime, we have the Sunday message on YouTube which has more views that we have people in the church.

We have had small groups since the church was just beginning, so those leaders are now the pastors in their group. We have kept in touch with the leaders, and shared communion individually which has been a blessing for all of us. We are amazed at what the Lord is doing in the individual lives. There has been much spiritual growth, and those that were “pew warmers” (although we use chairs here) have grown in the Lord and are taking an active part in ministry in their group. The New Testament church was comprised of house churches and we are discovering how effective they are for spiritual growth.

IN THE SCHOOL...

Our school starts virtually in September, but the teachers have already started with orientation, reviewing goals and the Christian worldview. We still need two more teachers and ask for prayer for good teachers who love the Lord and have a Christian worldview. This year we have a new principal, Geovana Martinez, who has been with us for about 13 years as a teacher and then a coordinator. She sees the position as a ministry and has a solid understanding of our vision and mission. Hernan Lopez, who stepped in as principal last year to help us when the former principal retired, will continue with us as an ACSI advisor (Association of Christian Schools International) – both for the school and the school board. We are very thankful that he will be working with us.

MINISTRY ON-LINE...

On-line and zoom prayer meetings are growing all the time. Last week we had a Colombia prayer vigil with over 500,000 people participating. We have Latin American prayer every last Friday of the month with hundreds of thousands on-line from 30 different countries. This month I participated in ASK's prayer ministry praying for Colombia with people from 12 nations – African, European and North and South American. They pray for a different nation each week and I plan on continuing with them.

Enjoying 3 month old Cove

I also enjoy monthly meetings with the International Advisory Board of Messenger Fellowship – England, France, Canada, USA and Colombia. It has been most encouraging to share what the Lord is saying to us and doing in us – something to which I really look forward.

Thank you so much for your support in prayer and contributions. The Lord is definitely moving in spite of, or perhaps because of, the difficult circumstances. Thank you so much for sharing in this ministry as it is so needed. May the Lord richly bless you.

Yours in His service,

Three outstanding apostolic fathers in Colombia
speaking on the Latin American prayer vigil:
Hector Pardo
Hector Torres
Ricardo Rodriguez

This is Jhon (yes, this is the way it is spelled here) Milton Rodriguez. He is now an outstanding senator, pastor of a large church in Cali which he has turned over to those he trained. We are meeting with him on Zoom to talk about his possibly being a candidate for president in elections two years from now. An overwhelming number of pastors and leaders of missions asked him to run for presidency and he presented it to us for our input as we are the covering for him. We all felt that if we don't act for this election, the country will be lost to the popular philosophies that are taking over the world. Please pray for him. It was thought impossible for him to become senator since we just formed a new political party... what happened had not been seen before. He was voted as the senator/party who did most for the country by the other senators. If he is elected president it will be a miracle, but so far it has all been a miracle and time is short. He is well aware of corruption in high places and is an honest, godly man. Please pray for him.

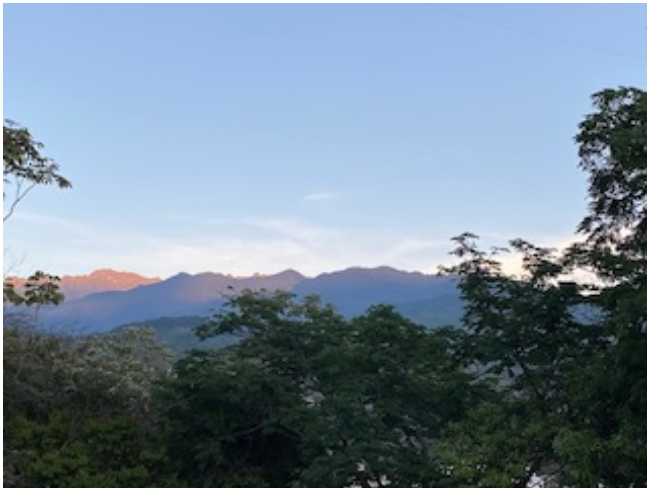

Announcing prayer vigil for Colombia. Over 500,000 people participated!

I am discipling two young men who have recently come to the Lord. We went up to prayer mountain to see the city and to pray over it. It was amazing to hear them pray for the city. Their lives and growth in the Lord has been an enormous blessing as I have prayed quite a while for them.
